PREHISTORIC LIFE

Sc 1306

Sc 1307

Sc 1308

Sc 1309

The age of primitive vertebrates is featured on this block of four. Shown are the lobe-finned fish from the Devonian Period, fossilized mouth parts of small eel-like creatures, a land reptile from the Carboniferous Period and a giant fossilized tree from the Devonian Period.

CANADIAN ART

Sc 1310

Forest, British Columbia, an oil painting by Emily Carr, is from her nature period and reflects the forest's "solemn splendor and towering strength."

SMALL CRAFT

CANADA DAY

Sc 1316

Commemorating the 124th anniversary of Confederation, a day of national celebration.

Sc 1317

Sc 1318

Sc 1319

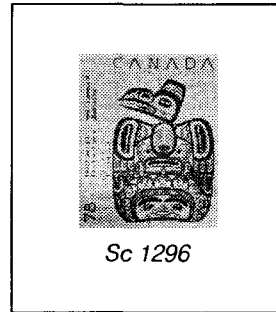

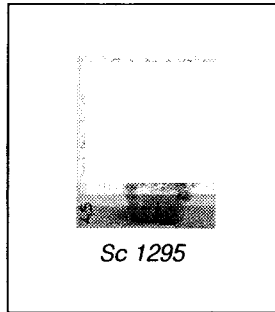

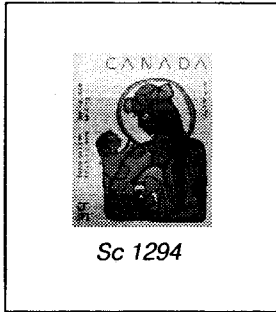

Sc 1320

Small pleasure craft are depicted on this block of four. The verchere rowboat is flat-bottomed and first appeared in the St. Lawrence in the mid-1800s. The touring kayak is wider and longer than its white-water counterpart to offer greater stability. The sailing dinghy, used for racing or pleasure sailing is small and portable. The cedar strip canoe offers a smooth ride for avid canoeists.

BOOKLET STAMPS

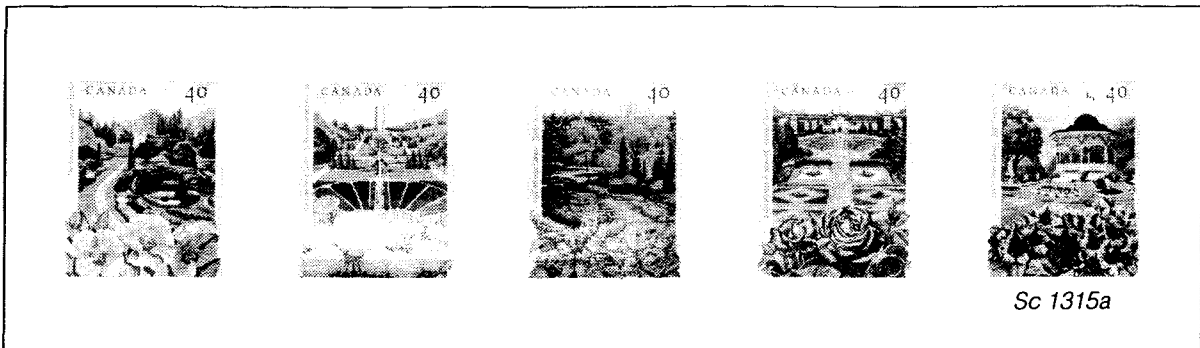

WILDERNESS RIVERS

Sc 1325a

Rivers shown in this booklet include the South Nahanni River which flows out of the Yukon and contains the scenic Virginia Falls, the Athabasca River, the longest river in Alberta, the Boundary Waters - Voyageur Waterway which flows between Canada and the U.S., the Jacques-Cartier River in Quebec, known for its beauty and historic value as an early travel and trade route, and the Main River, on the Great Northern Peninsula, one of the last remaining near-wilderness areas of Newfoundland and Labrador.

PUBLIC GARDENS

Sc 1315a

Featured in this booklet are: the Butchart Gardens, near Victoria, B.C., known for its sunken garden, the International Peace Garden, near Boissevain, on the Manitoba-North Dakota border, which symbolizes the peaceful relations between Canada and the U.S., the Royal Botanical Garden, Hamilton, Ont., known for the largest collection of lilacs in the world, the Montreal Botanical Garden, a highly respected horticultural centre and Canada's oldest surviving public garden, Halifax Gardens.

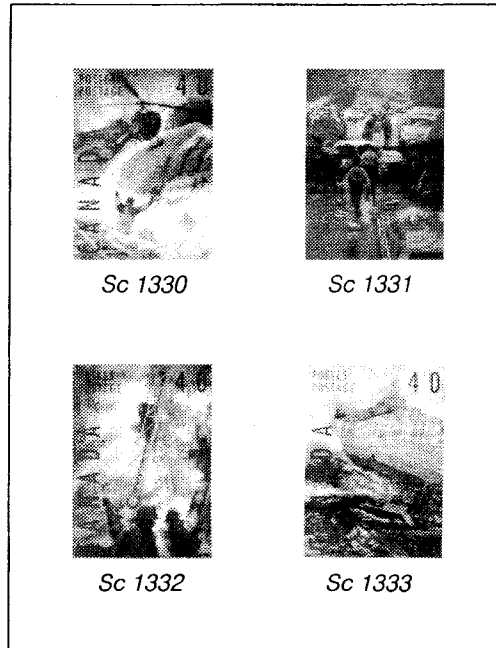

1991

ARRIVAL OF THE UKRAINIANS

The Ukrainian Pioneer, a painting by William Kurelek, is featured on this block of four depicting the many hardships faced by these immigrants.

DANGEROUS PUBLIC SERVICE OCCUPATIONS

Those in dangerous public service occupations are saluted with this block of four. Search and rescue operations respond to about 9,000 incidents per year. Municipal police forces, which first appeared in Canada in the 1830's were patterned after the London Metropolitan Police. Firefighting is physically demanding and stressful. The Canadian Ski Patrol System began in 1940 and came to the aid of 15,000 skiers in one two-year period.
